

Reciprocity

Are you looking for a job outside the Sacramento area?

Reciprocity allows you to access other law schools' job-search postings and other career-related services. It's as easy as 1-2-3.

- (1) Individual schools' reciprocity policies can be found on the NALP website at <http://nalp.org/reciprocitypolicies?s=reciprocity>. Please review these policies before making your list of schools (e.g., most schools have blackout periods when they won't allow reciprocity requests for several months at a time).
- (2) Contact the CDO at lawcareers@pacific.edu with a list of law schools from whom you'd like reciprocity, and we will do the rest to set you up.
- (3) Keep us posted if you have any trouble with reciprocity—and let us know when you've secured a post-graduate job as a result of a job application you discovered through reciprocity!
