

"BEFORE IT'S TOO LATE - HOW CAN LAW SCHOOLS TEACH AND INCULCATE THE TRADITION OF CIVILITY"

Lou Ashe 2009 Symposium

Co-Sponsored by: Center for Advocacy and Dispute Resolution; Capital Center for Public Law & Policy; Cal-ABOTA; Sacramento Valley Chapter, ABOTA

6:00 p.m. – Introduction

Thomas J. Leach, Professor of Law & Director, Trial Advocacy, Pacific McGeorge

6:10 p.m. – Two Views from the Bench

John Gerrard, Justice, Supreme Court of Nebraska
Elena Duarte, Judge, Sacramento County Superior Court

6:30 p.m. – One Answer to the Need – Cal-ABOTA's training DVD, "Civility Matters"

David Casselman, President, Cal-ABOTA and Senior Trial Partner, Wasserman, Comden & Casselman, LLP
Nancy Sheehan, President, ABOTA Sacramento Chapter

6:50 p.m. – Beyond Advocacy Courses – How to Spread Civility Training Across the Curriculum

Leslie Gielow Jacobs, Professor of Law & Director, Capital Center for Public Law &
Policy, Pacific McGeorge
John Oakley, Professor of Law, UC Davis School of Law, King Hall

7:10 p.m. – Two Views from the Younger Bar and the Student Trenches

Jason Schaff, Vice President, Sacramento Barristers Club
Alyssia Holland, Pacific McGeorge Student

7:20 p.m. – Discussion & Questions

7:45 p.m. – Reception