INFORMATION ON OBTAINING AN F-1 STUDENT VISA

As a foreign student who will be temporarily residing in the United States, you are required to comply with American immigration laws. The United States strictly enforces a very detailed set of rules and regulations governing foreign nationals. Your adherence to the requirements and procedures articulated below will help you to avoid unnecessary difficulties. Please read carefully the information below.

SEVIS

The Immigration and Naturalization Service (INS) has been replaced by the U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services, (USCIS). In addition to the name change, the U.S. government has introduced the Student Exchange and Visitor Information System (SEVIS). SEVIS is an online database that connects immigration officials and U.S. colleges and universities by providing information on international students and scholars. On September 1, 2004, a new United States Department of Homeland Security (DHS) rule went into effect. This rule requires F-1 and J-1 visa applicants to pay a one-time fee of $200 to supplement the administration and maintenance costs of SEVIS. This fee is often referred as the SEVIS fee.

F-1 Student Visas

Having a U.S. visa is like having a key to enter the country. The expiration date on your visa is the last day you may enter the United States from abroad. You need a valid visa every time you enter the country. Depending upon the type of visa you use to enter the U.S., you are subject to different guidelines in order to "maintain status" or remain in this country legally. The Graduate and International Programs office can help guide students through the application for F-1 student visas.

Requirements

To apply for an F-1 visa, you will need a SEVIS-issued Certificate of Eligibility for Nonimmigrant (I-20) Students from the school. The Graduate and International Programs office will issue the I-20 form under the following conditions:

1. you have been fully accepted into a program of study at the law school;
2. You have shown proof of financial support for the first year of study. You should complete and submit the Certification of Finances form.
3. You have paid your SEVIS fee
4. You have paid your LL.M. or J.D. tuition deposit. [http://www.mcgeorge.edu/asp/cashnet/deposit.asp]

PROCESS

Step 1: Certification of Finances – This form is used to show proof of support for your first year of study. You must demonstrate sufficient funding to cover all expenses including tuition, fees, books and living expenses. Funding may come from your own personal account, a private sponsor's account and/or scholarships/loans that have been approved. In addition to filling out the form, you will need to provide adequate verification of the funds. Verification documents include:

- Original letter from your bank or your sponsor's bank stating the available funds. The letter must be on official letterhead, dated within the last three months and include the bank's seal; and/or
- Official award letter stating the amount and duration of the scholarship/grant awarded, if applicable; and/or
- Non-government source loan approval letter from the granting institution, stating the loan amount, if applicable.

See the Certification of Finances form below for more information.

You should obtain two original copies of the financial verification documents. One set of originals should be sent to the law school; the other set of originals should be retained by you, so that you may have them available when applying for a visa and for use at the port of entry.

Note: The visa application process and required documents may differ depending upon the requirements of the specific consular office in your home country. Please check your local consular office’s requirements.
Step 2: SEVIS Fee - Once you have obtained the Form I-20 from the law school, you will need to pay the required $200 SEVIS fee, get the fee receipt and make an appointment at the embassy/consulate. To pay your SEVIS fee, please go to www.fmjfee.com

Step 3: Obtain F-1 Visa - You will need to bring the following documents to the embassy/consulate:

- Certificate of Eligibility for Nonimmigrant F-1 Student Status (Form I-20)
- Passport — The passport must be valid for travel to the United States and be valid for at least six months after the date you enter in the United States
- Proof of necessary funds to cover tuition and living expenses
- Receipt for the $200 SEVIS payment
- Any other documents required by your local consular office.

Note: The visa application process and required documents may differ depending upon the requirements of the specific consular office in your home. Please check your local consular office requirements.

Note: Students who are citizens of Canada may obtain their F-1 visas at the port of entry. Canadian students will be required to present their Form I-20, passport and additional supporting financial documents to the U.S. Immigration Inspector at the U.S. port of entry.

Step 4: Entering the U.S. - You need to present the following documents to an immigration inspector at the U.S. port of entry.

- Certificate of Eligibility for Nonimmigrant F-1 Student Status (Form I-20)
- Passport — The passport must be valid for travel to the United States and be valid for at least six months after the date you enter in the United States
- F-1 visa
- Proof of necessary funds to cover tuition and living expenses

The immigration inspector decides whether or not to admit you into the U.S. with an F-1 nonimmigrant status.

Step 5: Check-in with the Graduate and International Programs Office – Once you have arrived, please stop by the Graduate and International Programs office in Northwest Hall with your visa, I-94 and validated I-20 form and passport. We will make copies for our records.

We will give you important information and some additional forms to be filled out and returned to our office after settling into your accommodations. Please contact me if you have any difficulties or are unsure about anything discussed in this letter. I look forward to meeting you and working with you during your studies at Pacific McGeorge.

* Health Insurance may be waived. See http://www.pacific.edu/Campus-Life/Student-Services/Health-Services/Health-Insurance/Insurance-Waivers.html for more information

Please check with the Graduate and International Programs Office for the most current rates after May. University tuition and fees are subject to periodic increase.

B. Official documents for certifying funding (do not send faxes or copies, all documents must be originals)

Please submit proof of funding for studies at Pacific McGeorge.

1. Bank letter: The original letter from your bank, if sponsoring yourself, or from a sponsor’s bank, must:
   - be in English;
   - be on bank letterhead/stationary (which should include the name and address of the bank);
   - have the name of the person on the account;
   - have the amount of funds for at least the amount required for the first year of the program in the currency of the country and the conversion amount in U.S. dollars;
   - have the bank official’s name and signature;
   - must not be more than 3 months old when sent to the University of the Pacific, McGeorge School of Law. Copies are not acceptable.

2. Sponsor letter: If you have a sponsor, the letter from the sponsor must state that the sponsor will be financially responsible for your education while you are at the University of the Pacific, McGeorge School of Law. It must include your name, the sponsor's name and address, and the sponsor’s original signature. The sponsor must also submit an original bank letter certifying funds (follow bank letter requirements). Letters must not be more than 3 months old when sent to the University of the Pacific, McGeorge School of Law. Copies are not acceptable.

If you have more than one sponsor, there must be a letter from each sponsor and a letter from each sponsor’s bank. If there is more than one person on a bank account, each person must sign a sponsor letter.
C. Other official documents

For yourself:

1. Identification: We need a copy for your passport ID page, to ensure accuracy on your I-20 form.

2. Health Insurance: Pacific McGeorge has a mandatory health insurance policy. You will automatically be enrolled in our health insurance. You may request a waiver, if you decide to purchase your own health insurance policy. Note that your health insurance policy needs to meet our requirements in order to be waived out of our health insurance. Please visit our website at http://www.pacific.edu/Campus-Life/Student-Services/Health-Services/Health-Insurance/Insurance-Waivers.html to learn more about our requirements. We highly recommend you to get your waiver approved before purchasing a health insurance policy that is not ours.

If you are traveling with dependent(s):

1. Identification: We need a copy for the passport ID page for each of your dependent(s).

2. Health Insurance: We need proof that all the dependents will carry medical insurance while in the United States.

3. Proof of Relationship: We need a copy of either a birth certificate or a marriage certificate.

Note – All documents need to be in English. If the original is not in English, please submit a certified translation.
