

MEMORANDUM

TO: McGeorge Community

FROM: Bob Murta, Assistant Dean, Administration & Resource Management

DATE: March 4, 2011

SUBJECT: Accessibility to University Programs and Events

University of the Pacific McGeorge School of Law is committed to achieving equal educational opportunities for qualified persons with disabilities in a manner consistent with University's obligation under law. No qualified person with a disability shall be excluded from participation in any University program, nor be denied benefits of any University program, or otherwise be subject to discrimination on the basis of such a disability. Therefore, Pacific McGeorge provides accommodations and appropriate services (on a case-by-case basis) for employees, students and guests of the University who may have physical and/or medical impairments, as well as learning disabilities.

Additionally, Pacific McGeorge is committed to providing access to University programs for qualified students, faculty, staff, and visitors. This non-discrimination policy applies to all qualified applicants or students who seek to or do participate in employment, access to facilities, student programs, activities, and services.

If you are hosting an event and have questions regarding access or accommodations, please contact: Casandra Fernandez, University Events Manager, at 916-739-7214 or cfernandez@pacific.edu.

If you have questions or concerns regarding access and accommodations for students or prospective students, please contact: Mary McGuire, Assistant Dean for Student Affairs, at 916-739-7089 or mmcguire@pacific.edu.

If you have questions or concerns regarding access and accommodations for faculty and staff, please contact: Elisa Levy, Director of Human Resources, at 916-739-7343 or el Levy@pacific.edu.

If you have questions regarding barriers or the need for accessibility of an area, please contact: David Lambertson, Executive Director for Administrative Resources, at 916-739-7146 or dlambertson@pacific.edu.
